Dr. Courau's property is worth only Rs: 6000 but the Board bids him in the sum of Rs: 10,000. The collector reports the surety to be good

It is true the Govt of Madras was directly asked to approve the Swetics only but the case being an exceptional one a special bond with retrospective effect is necessary.

It is not known whether or not all 4 journals sent a copy of the proposed bond to the appropriate Govt for approval.

Apparently all that can be done now is to communicate the report to Gravitation This I think is the best course.

SIR,

In reply to Government Order, Public No 1012 dated 9th December 1889, and Reminder of the 10th Instant, I have the honor to submit for orders the required Draft Surety bond as altered by the Government Solicitor, together with copies of his covering letter No 656 of the 21st ultimo, and Mr Courvan's letter No 45 of the 15th Inst, the report on the sufficiency or otherwise ~~and the documents in the form to which~~ it has been altered by Messrs Barclay and Morgan; but, if it is necessary, I should submit the form with the said alterations and additions, for the inspection of the Mauritius Government and to await their orders. This I will, accordingly, do by the outgoing mail, if you will be good enough to send me back the altered form and, if you have no objection, Messrs Barclay and Morgan's covering letter.

in the absence of information that the form of such bond had already been prescribed by the Law Officers of the Mauritius Government, and approved of by that Government.

3 I submitted to you, with my letter of the 11 December 1889, a copy of that form (marked appendix C) with the printed Rules from which it had been transcribed.
I observe that the Madras Government Solicitors, to whom it was referred by you, have, while adopting the form, made therein material alterations and additions.

4 For my own part, I have, of course, no objection, and I have no doubt my proposed sureties will have no objection,

Madras Government, dated 8th November 1889, No. $\frac{F}{371}$, and the letter from the Honble to myself, dated 8th November 1889, No. $\frac{F}{372}$

(all three documents referred to in the Proceedings of the Madras Government dated 9th December No. 1012.) It would appear that the Mauritius Government did not intend more than the approval by the Madras Government of the Sureties only, the form of the requisite bond being prescribed in the Mauritius Government's own Service Regulations. And the order of the Madras Government in their Proceedings above referred to viz; that the said bond be pre-

3 I have thought it better, as Mr Couran is resident here, to make the bond in favor of the Secretary of State for India in Council, so that, if necessary, the bond may be enforced with greater facility than if in favor of Her Majesty. The Bond should be engrossed, as altered in red ink and stamped with Rs 5 before execution. I ~~must~~ ^{must} consider that the bond comes under exemption 12 (b) of Schedule II to the Stamp Act, as Mr Couran is not an officer of the Government of India which I apprehend is the "Government" referred to in the exemption

The Collector of Madras

Sir,

1 I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 12th Instant. No 3684 with its enclosures.

2 I do not understand Mr Courain's objection in sending in two forms of security bond.

The form B is not applicable to his case as it relates merely to future acts of the obligor. As Mr Courain was apparently appointed Emigration Agent for the Madras Division on the 29th March last, the Bond in form C is the one applicable to his case, and this form I have approved of subject
