" Asst Secy.

Camp Madras 10th February 1890.

No. 66.

From A. Rea, Esquire, M. R. A. S.,

FIRST ASSISTANT,

To The Chief Secretary,
to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. No. 624
Public dated 23rd July 1889, I have the honour to state that Mr. Ramachandra Rao the clerk temporarily appointed, failed to pass an examination by a Medical Board in Madras.
He could not therefore be appointed to the permanent post.

2; I have therefore secured another incumbent
Mr. C. Srinivasalingar. He is a Brahman, and was assistant master in the L. M. High school of Bangalore. He is a matriculate of the Madras University; has passed the Handwriting test;

and some Sanskrit. He has high testimonials as to his abilities, diligence and general character from the Principals of the Central College and London Mission High School Bangalore. (11). He has a certificate of physical fitness, seems smart, and every way suited for the work. I would therefore request that his appointment to the permanent post on the salary of Rs 30 to 35, may be sanctioned from the 6th Instant inclusive.

I have the honour to be

Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,

Asst Assistant.

The Testimonials.

LONDON MISSION HIGH SCHOOL BANGALORE.

CERTIFICATE OF MERIT AND HONOUR.

THIS is to certify that C. SRINIVASA IVENGAR was a student in the Matriculation Class of this High School during the year 1882; that he was regular in his attendance, diligent in his studies, obedient to his masters; and that his behaviour was good in every respect.

Having passed the Matriculation Examination, he now leaves the school; and this certificate is awarded to him in testimony of our approbation of his conduct and our good opinion of his character in general.

(Signed) J. H. WALTON,

PRINCIPAL.

Bangalore, March 1883.

No. 2.

CENTRAL COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

C. SRINIVASIENGAR has been a student in the First-in-Arts class for the past two years. He appeared for the F. A. Examination in December last but failed in Mathematics alone. He has been regular in attendance and some Sanskrit. He has high testimonials as to his abilities, diligence and general character from the Principals of the Central College and London Mission High School Bangalore. (11). He is fit, seems strong for the work. I wish his appointment at the salary of Rs. from the 6th June diligent in his studies and exemplary in his conduct and out of College. He is a young man of good birth and honest principles.

(Signed) CHAS. M. LEONARD,
For PRINCIPAL,
Central College.

Bangalore, 16th April 1885.

No. 3.

LONDON MISSION INSTITUTION, BANGALORE.

This is to certify that CA. CUBA SRINIVASIENGAR began his alphabet in this school in 1878 and Matriculated in December 1882. He was very regular, diligent, obedient, and respectful. His conduct was uniformly very good. He is a very sensible and sharp young man, gentlemanly in his manners, and I believe him to be honest. He writes a good hand.

(Signed) J. H. WALTON,
(PRINCIPAL).

Bangalore, April 5th 1886.

No. 4.

CENTRAL COLLEGE BANGALORE.

This is to certify that Mr. C. SRINIVASA IYENGAR, now an Assistant master in the London Mission Institution was a Student in the F. A. Classes of this College during 1883—5, that he was most regular in his attendance and exemplary in his behaviour, and that he showed himself possessed of good abilities. He ought to have passed his F. A. Examination without difficulty but failed by a few marks in Mathematics. He writes a very good hand.

and could do well in an Office, and I shall be glad to hear of his getting employment in a Government or other post, as I think he is an intelligent and deserving young man.

(Signed) J. COOK M. A.,
PRINCIPAL,
Central College.

BANGALORE,
18th June 1888.

No. 5.

LONDON MISSION INSTITUTION, BANGALORE.

I have known Mr. SRINIVASA IYENGAR, both as student for two years in the F. A. Classes of the Central College—and as Assistant master in this Institution and I have much pleasure therefore in testifying to his diligence and exemplary conduct as a pupil and to his activity, intelligence, zeal and integrity as a teacher. He is characterised by a modest unassuming and gentlemanly demeanour. I am glad too to be able to state that he still diligently pursues his studies in private in order to fit himself for passing the first Arts Examination of the University.

Mr. C. SRINIVASA IYENGAR, has my best wishes for his future welfare. I shall be very much pleased to learn that he is entertained in Government service for he will prove—if I mistake not—a useful and trustworthy public servant.

I ought to have stated before that Mr. SRINIVASA IYENGAR, writes a neat legible hand.
