ABSTRACT.

PRECIS.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 35, dated the 18th of February 1890, I have the honour to inform you that the Signaller in charge of the Fort Saint George Office had no alternative but to return the telegram.

2 Unless a telegram is addressed to a Telegraph Office by name it is impossible for that telegram to reach its destination.

3 The Telegraph Lines between India and England are worked by companies and Foreign Governments, none of who know the meaning of the word "Vaccin" which address concerns only London & India. Unless a Telegraph Office is in no intermediate administration is able to tell what place to transmit a telegram

4 The Rule laid down in the Telegraph Guide Section V, Rule 5I (last sentence) to which I beg to invite your attention, is quite clear on the point and agrees exactly with the rule in the International Telegraph Convention to which the Government of India is a party.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

H. P. Phillips
Offg. Superintendent.

SUBJECT.

Why a certain telegram was returned by the Signaller in charge of the Fort St. George office

This settles the matter - which is one of rule. It is clear that the name must be given. At times newspapers without
"London" have been accepted but probably it may be supposed that the telegraph
officials exceeded their duty & entered
"London" - meaning
the extra charge.
