GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., President, Board of Examiners, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 14th February 1890, No. 770.

I have the honor to report the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants held on the 15th January 1890 and following days. A list is enclosed, showing the Assistants who had not passed their examination on that date, and the subjects in which they have passed on this and previous occasions.

2. For the Higher Standard on this occasion, there were eleven candidates.

Messrs. Cobb and Walker came up in Divisions E and F, having previously passed in the other subjects. Mr. Cobb passed, and Mr. Walker failed.

Mr. Levy came up in Division A, having previously passed in the other subjects. He failed.

Messrs. Scott, Wetherill, Partridge, Michael, Buckley and Ayling came up in all Divisions. Mr. Scott passed in B, C and G, failing in A, D, E, F and H. Mr. Wetherill passed in A, B, C, E, G and H, failing in D and F. Messrs. Partridge and Ayling passed in B, C, E, F, G and H, failing in A and D. Messrs. Michael and Buckley passed in A, B, C, D, F, G and H, failing in E.

Mr. Cumming came up in Divisions B and C only, and passed in them.

Mr. Forbes came up in Divisions C and D only. He passed in C, failing in D.

3. For the Lower Standard there were six candidates.

Mr. Batten came up in Divisions A and D, having previously passed in the other subjects. He passed in D, failing in A.

Mr. Elphinstone came up in Divisions A and H, having previously passed in the other subjects. He passed in H, failing in A.

Mr. Vaughan came up in Division D and passed in it, having previously passed in the other subjects.

Mr. Parsons came up in Divisions A and D, and passed in them, having previously passed in the other subjects.

Mr. Gillman came up in Divisions A and D, having previously passed in the other subjects. He passed in A, failing in D.

Mr. Jardine came up in Divisions A and H, and passed in them, having previously passed in the other subjects.

Five of the newly arrived Junior Civilians who were at Madras at the time of the examination, also appeared in Division C, Law of Evidence, and passed in it. They were Messrs. Davidson, Pitt, Bedford, Dutt and Hall.

4. The general results of the examination are that, for the Higher Standard, Mr. H. V. Cobb has passed. The increased allowance of Rs. 175 may be passed to him from the 16th January 1890, he having gone through his course of practical training in Survey and Settlement.

Messrs. Walker, Levy, Scott, Wetherill, Partridge, Michael, Buckley, Cumming, Forbes and Ayling have not qualified.

For the Lower Standard, Messrs. E. L. Vaughan, W. E. Jardine and F. C. Parsons have passed in the order in which their names are entered. The dates of passing are—Mr. Vaughan, 15th January 1890; Mr. Jardine, 17th; and Mr. Parsons, 16th idem.

Messrs. Batten, Elphinstone and Gillman have not qualified.

From W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., President, Board of Examiners, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 14th February 1890, No. 770.

I have the honor to report the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants held on the 15th January 1890 and following days. A list is enclosed, showing the Assistants who had not passed their examination on that date, and the subjects in which they have passed on this and previous occasions.

Messrs. Cobb and Walker came up in Divisions E and F, having previously passed in the other subjects. Mr. Cobb passed, and Mr. Walker failed.

Mr. Levy came up in Division A, having previously passed in the other subjects. He failed.

Messrs. Scott, Wetherill, Partridge, Michael, Buckley and Ayling came up in all Divisions. Mr. Scott passed in B, C and G, failing in A, D, E, F and H. Mr. Wetherill passed in A, B, C, E, G and H, failing in D and F. Messrs. Partridge and Ayling passed in B, C, E, F, G and H, failing in A and D. Messrs. Michael and Buckley passed in A, B, C, D, F, G and H, failing in E.

Mr. Cumming came up in Divisions B and C only, and passed in them.

Mr. Forbes came up in Divisions C and D only. He passed in C, failing in D.

3. For the Lower Standard there were six candidates.

Mr. Batten came up in Divisions A and D, having previously passed in the other subjects. He passed in D, failing in A.

Mr. Elphinstone came up in Divisions A and H, having previously passed in the other subjects. He passed in H, failing in A.

Mr. Vaughan came up in Division D and passed in it, having previously passed in the other subjects.

Mr. Parsons came up in Divisions A and D, and passed in them, having previously passed in the other subjects.

Mr. Gillman came up in Divisions A and D, having previously passed in the other subjects. He passed in A, failing in D.

Mr. Jardine came up in Divisions A and H, and passed in them, having previously passed in the other subjects.

Messrs. Walker, Levy, Scott, Wetherill, Partridge, Michael, Buckley, Cumming, Forbes and Ayling have not qualified.

For the Lower Standard, Messrs. E. L. Vaughan, W. E. Jardine and F. C. Parsons have passed in the order in which their names are entered. The dates of passing are—Mr. Vaughan, 15th January 1890; Mr. Jardine, 17th; and Mr. Parsons, 16th idem.

Messrs. Batten, Elphinstone and Gillman have not qualified.

January will be the period of the year when the total service at the date of suspension will have been that of the officer.

where I should be two months, also in the case of all four it is questionable whether suspension need be should precede the date of completion of ten years' service.

The point is raised now, as the Civilian named will probably have to be named, on the morning the intimation of grant should, it is thought, be clearly stated. The probabilities seem to be against Mr. Scott passing in July, and possibly against Mr. Scott's failure for the lower Standard, a draft order naming Mr. Elphinstone has been separately circulated today. A similar warning may be given to Mr. Batten.

3. The same point about the date of suspension will arise in their case if they fail to pass in July. They will not enter their fourth year of service until November, 1890.

Mr. Cobb will now receive his full allowance.

If they have to be suspended it is better that they should be suspended on the date when their names are entered.
