dependants have nothing to depend upon, except the scanty pension of Rs 20, which is hardly sufficient to meet the demands of a decaying family like this, she most respectfully dare to pray that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to duly consider her pitiable straitened circumstances and call upon either the Inspector General of Registration or any Head of some department to appoint her adopted son and nephew (brother's son) - Muhammed Muzdum Godara, who has qualified himself for public service, so that he may be able to serve under the present Government as his forefathers did under the then Governments and thus remove the burden of the pitiable family to a certain extent.

4. Copies of Certificates given to the memorialist's son about his Conduct &c are herein enclosed.

5. In Conclusion she most respectfully craves
