Office Note

With reference to para 5 of G.O. of 22nd January 1890, No. 40 Public, the undersigned submits the following report upon the indebtedness of some of the employees of the Press.

2. On the 1st Feb. there were 22 persons whose salaries were attached by the Small Cause Court; of these 11 will be paid up during the year, and each person has been warned to avoid further attachments. The undersigned submits the particulars of 11 cases for orders; 2 of the men are foremen, 7 are examiners and 2 are imposers. The attachment of the salaries of some of these men for so long a time has caused them to be absent on the plea of sickness, and at times to be discontented whenever extra calls are made upon them to prevent the work getting into arrears by absences; they are also at times depressed by no immediate prospect of deriving the advantages they should enjoy by drawing their full salaries, and by having so many to maintain on their

3. A separate schedule is attached giving particulars of each case. The undersigned submits the following remarks:-

Mr. E. A. Seal, Foreman has had much domestic trouble with his wife's long illness. During the past two years he has reduced his debts from Rs. 1027 to Rs. 553, and his attachments will be cleared within the next two years. The debts are all in his own name. His indebtedness has not affected his attention to business, nor his regular attendance. The undersigned recommends him for favorable consideration -

C. Shunmuga Mudali, Foreman of the Penitentiary Branch:- During the past two years there has been no reduction in the total of his debts as attachments received have slightly exceeded the amount paid off. The debts are all in his own name. In 1881 he applied to the Insolvent Court and was ordered to pay Rs. 50 monthly; the payments fell through, and his salary was attached in 1883 in the Small Cause Court. Although it will take about five years more before the present attachments are cleared, the undersigned recommends his case for favorable to his case -

Mr. A. L. Pereira, Examiner has reduced his debts by about one third of the amount during the past two years. The debts are all in his own name. He is endeavouring to arrange with his creditors, and withdraw all the attachments against him. The remarks in para 2 apply to his case.

Mr. C. M. Brisson, Examiner has made no reduction in his debts during the past two years. He is responsible for Rs. 692 in case of failure of Mr. A. Gruber to meet his liabilities, Rs. 249 with Mr. J. Moses, Rs. 236 with Mr. A. Hubert, and Rs. 167 with Mr. M. Trivett. The remarks in para 2 apply to his case.

Mr. J. C. Francke, imposer has made no reduction in his debts during the past two years. He took the benefit of the Insolvent Act in 1883 and on consideration of his case for reinstatement, was punished by 3 months suspension. The debts are all in his own name.

Mr. M. Trivett, imposer has reduced the debts standing in his own name to Rs. 45, but he is indebted to the extent of Rs. 1570 in connection with with others. He is further responsible for Rs. 1708 in case of failure of Mr. A. Gruber to meet his liabilities, Rs. 167 with Mr. C. M. Brisson, Rs. 59 with Mr. G. Weston, Rs. 61 with Mr. A. Huber, and Rs. 61 with Mr. J. Moses - He states that his family expenses are the cause of his indebtedness - His salary is Rs. 25, and he is only paying Rs. 5 monthly in reduction of his heavy debts. The undersigned considers that for a man working as a piecework compositor and afterwards as an imposer, he has recklessly incurred debts and liabilities -

4. In the cases of Mr. W. J. Lewis, Mr. W. H. French, Mr. J. Moses, Mr. A. Huber, Mr. P. L. Pereira, Mr. C. M. Brisson and Mr. J. C. Francke, the undersigned solicits that Govt. will be pleased to make no reduction in their positions or salaries. In the case of Mr. A. Gruber, the undersigned can make no special recommendation on his behalf. In Mr. M. Trivett's case he can only be removed from an imposer's post to a piecework compositor, and in that case, the Small Cause

Court would release him from his liabilities, as the Court does not attach the salaries of men whose incomes fluctuate by piecework earnings.

Learned

Chill
Superintendent

I had written to Mr. Trivett before I observed that Trivett has 10 children - 4 children of his own in his family. The other 6 children are his wife's. His salary is Rs. 25, and he is only paying Rs. 5 monthly in reduction of his heavy debts. The undersigned considers that for a man working as a piecework compositor and afterwards as an imposer, he has recklessly incurred debts and liabilities -

The Chief Secretary to Government

13th February, 1888.

5. The case of Trivett is about the worst, but after all dismissal would be a punishment beyond reason, and short of it there is nothing to be done. Relieving him to piecework would, it seems, be rather a gain to him, or Govt. need not reward him in that way.

6. It is submitted that Mr. Hill may be told that Govt. will not take action in regard to any of the persons mentioned.

Trivett should be made to take his pension. Govt. must be in a position to pay him. He has been doing this for many years. I think he must be dismissed. This will be a great relief to him. He will be able to get on with his family. He will be able to get on with his family. He will be able to get on with his family.

Mentions only a few causes of his indebtedness. Was a member of an undivided family - father's and uncle's troubles involved him in debt - sought relief in Insolvent Court & was ordered to pay Rs 50 monthly; failed to keep up payments after a time owing to sickness in family and maintaining so many related to him. Heavy rates of interest have increased the debt. Has now over 12 persons depending on him.

Further debt of about Rs 700/- which he will endeavour to pay out of court.

Repeated and continued illness of himself, wife and children, and death of two children

Further debt of Rs 150 which is being settled out of court.

When in receipt of $40 eleven persons were depending on him. Debts increased to meet expenses of sickness + death. His liabilities increased by those (jointly signing with him) leaving, and his leaving to meet the whole liability. The exorbitant rates of interest a hindrance to clearing the debts. Wife, 6 children, mother and relatives now depending on him.

Further debts of $1,00 which he is endeavouring to settle out of court.

60 " " 637 11 " 30 " "

Was in debt previous to joining the office, but was paying it off conveniently; after joining the press his salary was attached and he got further into debt, eventually seeking relief in the Insolvent Court. During suspension got into debt as subsistence allowance was inadequate. His debt increased having to maintain 8 persons with sickness in family and death. No attachments since he has been receiving $55 monthly, showing that his debts arose from inadequacy of income and a large family to maintain. His liabilities have not affected his duties.

Further debt of $120 which - will not be permitted to fall as an attachment upon his salary.

Mr. A. Gulerf. 23 8 Mar. 1884 Foreman 40 " Examiner 50 " Examiner 55 " 7/17 13 6 27 8

Counter-signed a heavy bond with his brother previous to 1887 and an arrangement made between his brother and himself to release him of responsibility and in belief that he was freed from liability did not include this bond in his schedule when filing his papers in the Insolvent Court in 1887. Borrowed Rs. 5 and gave a bond for Rs. 100. but owing to the absence of lawcar did not pay it on the day fixed and afterwards his salary was attached for this sum. His indebtedness does not detract from value of work done as an examiner.

Further debt of Rs. 250 for which he intends coming to some settlement.

Long illness of first wife & her death; death of 2 children, death of 2 aunts, illness of himself & family. His indebtedness has never interfered with the efficient discharge of his duties. Has a large family.

No other debts. Endeavours to withdraw the attachments at an early date.

Illness of some of the members of his large family, marriage of his brother & himself, death of children, support of an aged father in law. Further debt of Rs. 100 which will be paid out of court.

Insufficiency of salary, after being made an Imposer and family increasing, necessitated his taking the benefit of the Insolvent Court. The subsistence allowances of Rs 8-12 - during enquiry and during the three months suspension afterwards ordered by Court being insufficient to maintain himself, wife and 10 children, he incurred fresh debts to maintain them during that period. These debts with other expenses for sickness & deaths caused his salary to be attached a second time.

Further debts of about Rs 300 incurred on account of his daughter's wedding. Will endeavour to prevent this sum being attached with the exception of Rs 25 which is beyond his control.

Wm. Trivett 43 30 July 1883 Compositor 25 " " Compositor 25 " " Imposer 2 " Grade

The upkeep of his large family and the death of his father, mother, mother in law and eldest son compelled him to borrow money & he was not promoted as a foreman owing to his indebtedness. Has now depending on him wife, 10 children and father in law.

Further debt of Rs 30 which will be paid without attachment.
