[Despatch Abstract.]

Coming to the Surgeon General with Sub. Despatch from the Secy of State regarding Mr H.C. Burdett's "Hospital Annual" forwarding 50 copies of the work for distribution.

Extract letter from Mr. Burdett dated 12th November 1889.

I am sending you by the same post a copy of a new book I have published entitled "Burdett's Hospital Annual" which deals with the medical institutions of Great Britain. I am anxious to add an account of the Hospitals, Asylums and Nursing institutions of Greater Britain, and with this object I venture to enquire whether you think the Indian Government would co-operate with me as the colonial representatives have done to the extent of allowing me to send a sufficient number of free copies to the India Office to be transmitted to the authorities of the chief hospitals and medical institutions of India.

It may possibly be sufficient to send a copy or copies to the gentlemen who are responsible for the inspection and management of these institutions in the different dependencies of India, but on this point you will be better able to judge than I am.
