W. A. A. S. 1890

I am reduced to the form of a skeleton. What would be my state if I am not even favoured by the Almighty!
A cloud of sorrow is enveloping me on all sides for not finding any remedy to get over from my wretched state. I am of 19 years old and fortunately have passed the Middle School Examination which is a government examination. Your Highness is greatly requested to confer on me any appointment in the government department for my livelihood. I feel no ambition to be enriched but request your Lordship to impose on me any post that will suffice for my livelihood.
At least, may your Highness be merciful enough to recommend me to the Collector of this district.
If necessary, I am quite willing to make my presence before your Highness. Even if your Lordship finds rejection to this poor man's belly-complaint, your petitioner dares to say that he will, in short, be pinched with hunger; in consequence of which he will be conquered easily by hunger and death.
Consequently this petitioner is left in your honor's charge to protect him by conferring on him any post either in the government department or in any other department so that there will be no claim of such a miserable report. Even, if your honor considers proper, I am ready to serve as a peon.
I am patiently waiting for your honor's best arrangement. My address -
