2 With reference to the enquiries contained in the latter portion of Mr. Pestonjis application, which accompanied your letter under reply, I

The Acting Chief Secretary, to the Government of Madras

am to state that his duties would be to take charge of, and treat patients in a hospital or dispensary or to do such other work as he might be directed to do by the Principal Civil Medical Officer or the Colonial Surgeon immediately over him.

3 His Salary would (as he passed in 1888) commence at $60 a month with increments in accordance with the Scheme for Apothecaries embodied in the draft advertisement which was enclosed in my letter N^o. 9372, of the 25th November last the first increment dating from the 1st July next.

4 As his salary would be payable in dollars, the equivalent in rupees about which he makes enquiry would of course depend on the rate of exchange.

He

He should, however, be told that the cost of living here is considerably greater than in India.
