Sir,

In accordance with the sanction of the Government of India, my office has been removed from Madras to Bangalore. I ^{have} therefore the honor to request that Government might be pleased to sanction the expenditure incurred on the removal of the Headquarters office furniture, Books, records, negatives &c; and the camp equipage of tents, office furniture, baggage &c, amounting to Rs 82-13-0.

2. In addition to this, there is an amount of Rs 16-11-0, for demurrage, through the goods having to lie for 8 days at the Bangalore station. This occurred through a misunderstanding of the Treasury officer here. He had received previous orders to cash my Bills, but when I sent in a bill to receive an advance to pay for these articles, it was refused, as he said he was unable to pass an advance bill. Further orders had therefore to be issued by the Accountant General. —
