SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 216, dated the 19th March last, submitting for orders the case of Mr. E. Gibson, Collector of Tanjore. It appears that Mr. Gibson was granted 3 months' privilege leave from the 23rd September 1889, and was permitted to take a portion of the Christmas holidays in continuation of his leave, it having been arranged between Mr. Happell, his locum tenens, and himself that the former should hand over charge of the District to an Assistant at the commencement of the holidays. About the end of December, when it was too late to recall Mr. Gibson to his appointment before the actual date of the expiry of his leave, circumstances arose which necessitated the presence of the Collector in Tanjore, and Mr. Happell was instructed not to hand over charge of the Collectorate till Mr. Gibson's return. Mr. Gibson has thus become liable to the penalties attached to an ordinary case of overstaying leave, namely loss of appointment and allowances for nine days, from the 24th December 1889, to the 1st January 1890 inclusive. In view of the special circumstances of the case His Excellency the Governor in Council recommends that the Government of India should sanction Mr. Gibson's retention of office as Collector of Tanjore and the disbursement of his pay as such for the period in question.

2. In reply I am to say that the permission granted to Mr. Gibson to add the Christmas holidays to his leave must be held to have been contingent on there not being urgent necessity for his presence at Tanjore; but as it appears from Mr. Happell's retention that there was such necessity for the presence of the Collector at the District head-quarters, Mr. Gibson will have no cause of complaint if his allowances are reduced by the amount needed to pay

Mr. Happell for the responsibilities he incurred. The Governor General in Council is unable to approve of an arrangement by which two officers would during the nine days in question draw the pay of the Collector of Tanjore, but His Excellency in Council sees no objection to the Government of Madras declaring, under Article 254 of the Civil Service Regulations, that for the purpose of pay Mr. Gibson shall be deemed to have been in charge from the 24th December 1889, either absolutely, or, if Mr. Happell had any appreciable increase of work or responsibility, on the condition that he pays Mr. Happell the acting allowance which is admissible to him for the nine days in question. I am to add that Mr. Happell will, in any case, draw his own pay as Collector of Godavery, and his joining time can be extended or made to count from the date on which he actually gave over charge.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. J. Hall
