As soon as the Contractor brings his laborers they must be examined individually with the ^{3/38} 3/38 Contract engaging them, and after this, details of each Contract are entered in the register maintained under para 2 Section 10 of the Act. Copies of the Register relating to each laborer have also to be prepared under para 4 section 11, for delivery to the Contracting laborer.

In addition to this a copy of the register is sent to the Port Commissioner for comparison with the copy of the Register given to each laborer registered, before he is allowed to embark. There is also a certain amount of correspondence connected with this work and this appears to be increasing.

Under these circumstances I consider that the establishment as proposed is necessary.

The fees collected under the Act from February to 10 May 1890 come to Rs. 2568 and the cost of

Sir,

I have the honor to request sanction of the Government for the employment of 2 temporary clerks for conducting the work connected with the registration of labourers under Madras Act V of 1866.

2. The work is at present done by three of my vernacular clerks and they find it a heavy addition to their legitimate duties.

3. This work was commenced in February 1890 and it is gradually increasing. The number of contractors licensed is 8 and recruits

83. The number of coolies registered up to date amounts to 738.
