Order—dated 7th June 1884, No. 1212, Public.

All gazetted civil officers about to proceed on leave of any description for periods exceeding one month are desired, immediately before they quit their stations, to furnish the Government with their addresses while on leave.

Order—dated 2nd May 1888, No. 467, Public.

In modification of G.O., No. 1212, dated 7th June 1884, the Government resolve to direct that all subordinate gazetted civil officers about to proceed on leave of any description exceeding one month shall, before they quit their stations, furnish the heads of their departments with their addresses while on leave. It will be the duty of heads of departments to see that these orders are observed. Much inconvenience has been occasionally experienced from the neglect of the order above quoted.

2. Heads of departments will leave their addresses with the Chief or the Revenue Secretary.

G.O., dated 18th October 1888, No. 486, Public.

Read—the following paper:—

From H. B. GRIGG, Esq., M.A., Director of Public Instruction, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 8th September 1888, No. 6654.

With reference to G.O., Public, No. 1212, dated 7th June 1884, I have the honour to inquire whether the order applies to Educational officers who enjoy the usual vacation leave for Midsummer which exceeds one month.

2. I make this reference, as the point has been mooted by the Principal of the Presidency College, who says that, in the opinion of the Professors of the College, the expression "leave" used in the Government order above referred to does not include the vacation leave.

3. If the order does concern leave of the above kind, I propose asking the officers concerned to report their addresses to me prior to departure—a procedure which is directed to be adopted in G.O., No. 467, dated 2nd May 1888, Public, in the case of subordinate gazetted officers.

Order—dated 18th October 1888, No. 986, Public.

The word "leave," as used in the orders under reference, includes periodical vacations and recesses.
