Sir,

Referring to the last paragraph of letter No. F/381 of the 11th: December last, I have the honour, by direction of Governor Sir Charles Cameron Lees to transmit to you, for your information, the correspondence noted in the margin, relating to the clandestine emigration to Reunion of New Immigrants engaged to the Mon Loisir Estate.

2/ You will notice that Valoycothan, a laborer on Mon Loisir Estate, was prosecuted, under Article 8 of Ordinance 12 of 1881, for having induced laborers to desert the Estate and emigrate to Reunion, and was sentenced to a fine of Rs. 200.

No. A/97.

To

The Honourable the colonial Secretary. 2

In forwarding the enclosed copy of a letter from the Secretary to the Mon. Loisi Sugar Estates Company, I have the honour to suggest that the Inspector General of Police be asked to send one of his best officers or detectives to Mon. Loisir with the view of obtaining evidence to prosecute the Sirdar aluded to by Mr. Hugin under Article 8 of Ordinance 12 of 1881.

It is most important that efficient and prompt steps be taken in the matter, as his emigration, if it exists, is not only illegal, but the question of emigration to foreign countries between which and Her Majesty's Government there is no convention allowing emigration from India, has for some time past occupied the attention of the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

To The Honourable J.F. Trotter

Sir,

I have the honour to bring to your ~~makine~~ knowledge that I have been informed by one of the new immigrants engaged for Mon. Loisir on the 14.11.1889 whose name is Maniekam

Loisir, Chengabaiyan No. 404403 Periamen No. 404318 Permal Veerasamy No. 404324 engaged at the same date have left for Bourbon about a month ago.

Manickam Sabapathi also informed me that Valoyoother, one of the Sirdars of the estate, is doing his best to get a certain number of men presently engaged on the property to leave also for Bourbon.

Under cover you will receive the certificates of the three men who have already left for Bourbon.

I remain etc:

The Honourable The Procureur General. 3

From the enclosed enquiry, it appears that the man referred to, (Valoyoothan) who is a labourer on Mon. Loisir Estate, has been inducing certain other labourers to desert the estate and emigrate to Reunion. The evidence obtained is not very strong, but I think a prosecution, under Article 8 of Ordinance 12 of 1881 may be attempted. Do you agree?

Enclosure to Report of Inspector Genl: of Police dated 14.3.91

Manikam Sababeddy Pillay, a new Immigrant engaged on the 14.
11.89 for five years on Mon. Loisir Estate, states-- About the month of November last whilst in my hut, which is close to the hut of Valoyoothan, in Mon. Loisir Estate Camp, I saw one Perianen ^{and} Permal Veerasamy, who had ^{then} deserted the Estate, entering the hut of Valoyoothan; they began talking, but as they were speaking in a very low voice, I could not hear what their conversation was about. Shortly after Perianen and Permal Veerasamy came out of Valoyoothan's hut followed by Valoyoothan, his wife and his two sisters-in-law. Valoyoothan was carrying a big bundle on his head, the women were also carrying bundles and all took the direction of the main road. - Since that night, these two men were ~~seen~~ no more to be seen on the Estate.

About 15 days after the new year, my wife was called by Valoyoothan; - she went to his hut, what took place, I cannot say, but on her return from Valoyoothan's hut, she told me that Valoyoothan had tried to induce her to quit the Estate, - that he would pay her passage and give her some money; - my wife then informed me that she had refused to accept the offer.

Shortly after the return of my wife from Valoyoothan's hut, Valoyoothan came and called me to go to his hut which I did; - on my arrival there, he made me sit down and then said to me: "You are a new immigrant, desert the Estate where you have to put up with all sorts of misery. I will give you money and pay up your passage - I will also give you a letter for Perianen at Bourbon, and there you will have a good situation without your ~~letter~~ paper. If you accept my offer to go to Bourbon, as I have done for Perianen and ~~Perianen's~~ ^a ~~company~~, I will give you papers and with these papers, you can will be at liberty to embark on board any vessel bound to Bourbon."

It is to my personal knowledge, about five weeks ago, Valoyoothan got a letter from Perianen; he said to me and my wife, saying that Bourbon was a fine place where plenty work was to be had obtained, as well as good food and pay.

Taken by me in presence of ^S ~~Mr~~ Reynal, the Manager, and Mr. Dalais, the book keeper of Mon. Leisir Estate.

I asked him how can I go to Bourbon; I am engaged as well as my husband to Mon. Leisir Estate, and I have no money. Valoyoothan then said: "Noer mind if you agree to go to Bourbon, I will give you money and pay your passage." I said No, I cannot go - and I returned ~~my~~ home and began to seek my food. - ^{hut and called my} Shortly after Valoyoothan came to my husband; - they both went away; - what took place between them I cannot say, but on his return home, my husband told me that Valoyoothan had made the same proposal to him as he had made to me.

I remained on that night in Valoyoothan's hut several bundles of clothing which were not there before. I did not make any ~~remarks~~ ^{remarks} concerning the same - I was in the habit of taking my meals in Valoyoothan's hut, this is how I came to remark that these ~~bundles~~ ^{bundles} were not there before. After we had finished ^{taking} ~~our~~ meals on the night in question, it was about 10 P.M. I saw ~~Perianen and Perianen's~~ ^{Perianen and Perianen's} go out from the hut of Valoyoothan taking the direction of the main read, followed by Valoyoothar, the daughter of Perianen and another woman. - Valoyoothan was carrying a big bundle on his head. - Since that night, those two men have disappeared from the Estate. - The next day at 6 P.M. Perianen's wife came back to the Estate and said to Valoyoothan in my presence that: "Permal and Veerasamy are alright, I have embarked them on board the vessel bound to Bourbon. The wife of Perianen deserted the Estate a month after. Taken by me in presence of Mr Raynal, the Manager, and Mr. Delais the book keeper of Mon. Leisir Estate. 13. 3. 01.
