SIR,

IN supersession of the orders contained in Home Department letter No. 154, dated 7th January 1889, I am directed to request that the books which may, in future, be required by the Trustees of the British Museum under Act XXV of 1867 as amended by Act X of 1890, may, in accordance with the practice formerly in force, be sent to the India office for transmission to the Museum, but always packed separately from those intended for the India Office Library, so that they can be forwarded to their destination without being unpacked.

2. I am also to intimate that Her Majesty's Secretary of State desires that the accounts of all charges against the British Museum for packages, freight &c., should be forwarded to the India office for each calendar year. Care should be taken to send these accounts to the India office as soon as possible after the
