MENT HOUSE
May 1880

I beg to represent that I am a poor man a native of Calcuttare having no other means of supporting myself except by any appointment your Excellency may be pleased to confer on me I have passed the Comparative & the Middle School Examinations in the 1st Cl.

Being destitute of means to enable me to further prosecute my studies I was obliged to stop the same and to look up for an employment. My father named Naraniar has appointed as an Amice in the District Munsiff's court Idamalgudi in 1848. Now his age is over, I have no supporter then except the Government. I want to support my father's widow and my brothers and sisters and my family.
