Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice the long, faithful and honourable service of First Class Hospital Assistant J. Sumsarsamy Pillay, A^o 24, now teacher, for twenty-four years, of Materna Medica and Practical Pharmacy to the Junior Department and Assistant in the College in the Senior Department.

He commenced his service in May 1854 and was employed, on military duty, in Burma, for two years and subsequently, for the same period, with Native Regiments in Pallavaram and Trichinopoly. He was then transferred to civil duty in the Southern Districts of the Madras Presidency, at which he remained until 1866, when he was selected as the Senior Government Gold Medalist, to fill the appointment of Native Assistant in the Medical College.

In the College, he has always borne a high character for good work and judicious management of the students. I have known him myself, since 1875 and during this period

SUBJECT.

Recommending Mr. 1st Class
Hospital Asst. J. Cunnovosami
Pillai to the local rank of
Hon. Asst. Surg.

Correspondence

For Orders.

- CS 10/15
- The Govt. recently con- sidered the periodical recommendation in this man's favour, brought on record in the "Filles" register.
2. The proposal of Dr. Sibbing (made when there was no Surgeon Genl) is to give an "honorary" or "local" rank - the hospital assistant being styled assistant Surgeon.
 3. Two cases alleged to be parallel to this are referred to. The honorary rank of assistant Surgeon was granted to C. Muthuswami Pillai in 1887, but that was on his retirement. There was a similar grant to one Venkata Ramiah in 1882. The second case cited by Dr. Sibbing is referred to as a case of the late Mr. J. C. Cunnovosami, who was given the rank of assistant Surgeon in 1885. It is not known on what principle Govt. proceeded in these cases. The grants seem to have been possibly given to some of a local rank.
 4. It is not known on what principle

Order.

The ^{cases} ~~precedents~~ quoted ^{by} ~~in the~~ ^{from} the Principal of the Medical College do not form precedents for the present request. Hospital Asst. C. Muthuswami Pillai was granted the rank of Honorary Surgeon on retirement, and in the case of Hospital Assistant Arthiam a local honorary rank was given by the Mysore Government.

2. In the circumstances H.R. The Governor-in-Council is unable to accede to the request.
