Triplicane, Madras.

To

Dr. F. C. Reeves

Ag. Secretary, Surgeon-General

with the Government of Madras.

Sir,

With reference to the advertisement in 'The Hindu' of the 28th April 1890, regarding the vacancy of the place of an Assistant in the Hospital at Taiping, Perak Government, I have the honour to offer myself as a candidate for the post.

As for my professional qualifications, I have passed the L. M. & S. Exams. of the Madras University and have hereinafter given copies of testimonials - also from Drs A. Porter & T. H. Pope.

Brigade Surgeon C. Dithorne & Surgeon Major H. Allison M. D. will speak about me if referred to.

I have the honour to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

A. G. Narayaniah

2. Mr A. G. Narayniak was favourably known to me when a student in the Medical College He was brought under my notice especially in the clinical wards of the General Hospital and in my class of Hygiene. I considered him exceedingly well-informed in his profession and capable of practising it with success.
Mr A. G. Narayniak was always an intelligent, exemplary and well-conducted young man.

OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL
WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
Fort St. George, 6th June 1890

No. 476
From

THE SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS, FORT ST. GEORGE,

THE Chief Secretary to Govt
Public Department.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No: 318 of the 10th April last, I have the honor to report for the information of Government that steps were taken to advertise the vacancy under the Perak Government in all local papers and up to this only two men have applied. One of these is a private practitioner aged about 55 years and can hardly be selected. The other is a young Brahmin with L. M. S. qualification and his application is enclosed
for the information of Government.
Should he be selected arrangements will be made to have him examined by a Commissioned Medical Officer as to his physical fitness for service in Perak.

Sir,

With reference to my letter No. 2373 of the 28th February last asking for the good offices of the Madras Government in procuring the services of a Dresser for the Lunatic Ward of the Hospital at Ipoh, Perak, I am directed by the Acting Governor of

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

I
of the Straits Settlements to inform you that the Government of Perak is now able to fill up the post locally, and to request that if an appointment has not already been made in Madras, no further steps in the matter may be taken.

I have the honour to be,

Ser.
