To

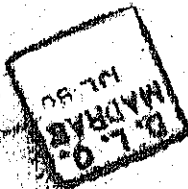

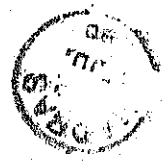

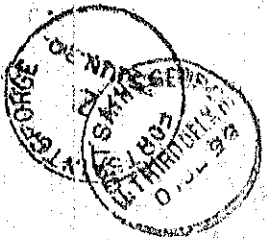

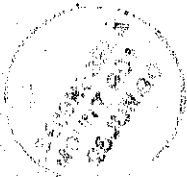

Chief Secretary to Government
As per command

Sir

Certain friends of mine propose to start a Social Reform Journal in Madras. It has the sympathy of many educated natives in Southern India. I shall thank you to let me know if Government will object to any Acts servants being connected with the editorial or financial management of the Journal. I may add that the servants I have in view are not in charge of any Executive office. I submit accordingly with

I am yours obediently

Note

It is best for Govt. not to seem to countenance any movements for reform or for conservation - it doesn't matter which of social customs.

If an individual servant of Govt. who leaves to edit a journal, he does so throughout the head of his Dept. but by the suggested order will do as well as any other.
