FROM

C. J. LYALL, Esq., C.I.E.,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE ROYAL INSTITUTE OF BRITISH ARCHITECTS,
 LONDON.

Home Department.
Books.

Simla, the 23rd May 1890.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 7th February last, requesting that the necessary orders may be issued for the supply to the Royal Institute of British Architects of any Archæological works published by the Government of India and the Subordinate Governments other than those already received by the Institute, and that Dr. Rájendralála Mitra's work entitled "The Antiquities of Orissa" may be presented to the Royal Institute.

2. In reply I am to say that the Government of India will be obliged if you will kindly furnish particulars of the works published under its authority which have not through inadvertence been supplied to the Royal Institute of British Architects. Under the existing arrangement, the Royal Institute is borne on the distribution list of Archæological Reports published by the Government of India, and is supplied with copies of these reports as they are issued. The last report published was the one on the Sharqi Architecture of Jaunpur, copy of which has been supplied to the Royal Institute. I am to say that the

2. Epigraphia Indica, Parts 1, 2 and 3.

Government of India would be happy to send the publications* marginally noted if the Royal Institute cares to have them. A copy of Dr. Rájendralála Mitra's "Antiquities of Orissa" (in two volumes) will be despatched to the India Office, London, for transmission to the Library of the Royal Institute, and arrangement will be made for the future supply to the Library of any similar works by native scholars which may be published under the authority of the Government.

3. Copies of your letter have been sent to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, which under the existing arrangement are required to send Archaeological Reports published under their orders to the Royal Institute.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. J. LYALL,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.
