Archaeology

With reference to Resolution dated 5th May 1890, regarding the reorganisation of the Archaeological Survey Department, I am directed to enquire whether any employment can be found under the Government of Madras for Messrs. Rogers and Garrick whose appointments in the Department will come under reduction from the 1st October 1890.

The Government of India are anxious that some employment should should, if possible, be found for these gentlemen.

2. Mr. Rodgers whose age is about 50 years has been in charge of the Archaeological Survey, Punjab Circle, since 1886. He is an Archaeologist of some research and an accomplished Miniaturist. Previous to his employment in the Archaeological Department he was for about 23 years in charge of an Anglo-Vernacular Training School attached to a mission at Amritsar.

3. Mr. Garrick who is a little over thirty years of age has been employed in the Archaeological Survey Department since 1880. He has held the post of Assistant Archaeological Surveyor, Bengal Circle; for about five years and is now in charge of the Archaeological Survey work in that Circle. He is an excellent only draws at present £450, or while Genl. may want proposals (as they are doing) to raise his pay to £500.

It is submitted that to add to the staff another officer drawing either £700 or £

it is submitted, a sound practice of communicating such enquiries as this to all depts & heads of depts. It is quite certain that the High

It is of no use asking

10TH JULY 1890, No. 498, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From J. W. P. MUIR-MACKENZIE, Esq., C.S., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department (Archæology), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 26th May 1890, Circular No. 4—5-81-Arch.

With reference to Resolution, No. 2—5-60, dated 5th May 1890, regarding the reconstitution of the Archæological Survey Department, I am directed to inquire whether any employment can be found under the Government of Madras for Messrs. Rodgers and Garrick, whose appointments in the department will come under reduction from the 1st October 1890.

The Government of India is anxious that some employment should, if possible, be found for these gentlemen.

2. Mr. Rodgers, whose age is about 50 years, has been in charge of the Archæological Survey, Punjab Circle, since 1886. He is an archæologist of some research and an accomplished numismatist. Previous to his employment in the Archæological Department, he was for about 23 years in charge of an Anglo-Vernacular Training school attached to a Mission at Amritsar.

3. Mr. Garrick, who is a little over thirty years of age, has been employed in the Archæological Survey Department since 1880. He has held the post of Assistant Archæological Surveyor, Bengal Circle, for about five years, and is now in charge of the Archæological Survey work in that circle. He is an excellent draftsman and photographer, in which capacity work might be found for him in the Local Public Works Department or as a drawing-master in the Educational Department.
