Madras.

Sir,

In reference to your No. 4272 dated 16th Inst. on the correspondence herewith returned, I have the honor to report that I have considered the qualifications of the (4) nine midwives whose names are submitted, and, am of opinion that Mrs E. A. Hennessey is the one best suited for the appointment. All the candidates are known to me, but I do not know much of Mrs Branson's attainments as she received her training at Calcutta.

Mrs Hennessey is a European, aged 35 or 36, very respectable, and well conducted, and, in many ways, more capable for the post
