Madras, dated 9 July 1890

Sir,

With reference to G.O. dated 12 June 1890 No. 426 Public, Consolidating and issuing the rules in force regulating the acquisition of landed property by incorporeate officers. I have the honor respectfully to point out that the inclusion of Sub-Registrars in the class of officers who are prohibited from acquiring landed property within the Districts in which they are residing is likely to cause considerable hardship. In rank and pay Sub-Registrars are in no way allowed. Our rule with it. It orders that the ^{ancient} servants in S(a) shall not acquire an interest in land within their districts by mortgage. The J. & R. takes this to imply that they may lend money on mortgages outside their districts. So they may but not to a land holder. A tradesman may borrow money on the security of his goods if he has possession

I think no alteration should be made in the rule about Sub-R 2 grades are. The rule about highest class is the same all over India. I am inclined to agree with the Hon Mr. Goshwin about it, but before asking the C of C to alter it I think we should get the opinion of the Board.

The rule of the 5 of 9 given on 20 30 Jan 90 426, 427 is 12th 60th M. L. L.

For orders.

In G.O. Pub. 1906 D. 12th Augt 1895 It was decided, on Mr. Hammett's recommendation, that Subregistrars should not be allowed to acquire lands within the limits of their districts.
 The present draft-pool apparently wishes this to be recommended -

The rule in G.O. No. 60 D.
 30th June 1890 apparently refers to officers exercising judicial & revenue functions & not to all subordinates in other depts. It is common to all India, with not probably be relaxed the same law for T. & T. 6/1/90 & for G. 1906 Pub. in G. 1906 any other comments on local rules - it is to be noted tions regarding the rules regarding the acquisition of land servants

The following is submitted for consideration in relation to the remarks of the Honble Mr. Secretary in relation that the Honble Mr. Secretary really required any change to be made in the existing rules as regards subordinates and by subordinates, or that such a should be addressed to the Secretary of the ruled in 1895 that no additional restrictions were to be placed on land-holding by subordinates off and and those then in force. It is to be noted that G.O. 581 dated 6.7.89 & Govt. adhered to the principle & decided that the rules should include absolutely nothing new but to restrictive rules relating to 1. Registrars had already been ruled in 1895 they were embodied G.O. 426 dated 12.6.90 Draft is submitted in accordance to the views expressed in the notes.

Order

Order 8 August 1904 No 56

The existing rule as reg Sub-Registrars was passed in read of the existing rule of Reg proceedings in 1904 and the rule of 1904 is 6 August recommended the opinion that the alterations made in the rules published had not done so far as however any change is to be it should be in the direction of involving all Sub-Registrars Sub-Registrars under Class 1 (4) of the rules rather than of transferring Registrars to class 1 (4) the rule to Sub-Registrars in the same will not and the proposed rule will probably have to be amended. Before the done the Board of Revenue will requested to pass the rule on the point. The rule of the last year in G.O. 60 dated 20.1.1904, that unencumbered officers in the revenue or judicial service shall lend no to any land-holder in the prov

I think the point is to be referred to the B^d for their opinion.
I think that a Tahsildar who has been in the service of the Dist^y in which he is employed is not bound to be transferred to the Tahsildar's office in charge. He may be charged with the work of the Tahsildar and this.

is also common to all India and no relaxation of it will be allowed.
Rule 3 in the appendix to G.O. 426 dated 12.6.90 is not however inconsistent with it. It orders that the unencumbered servants in (12) shall not acquire an interest in land within their districts by mortgage.
The S. G. of Registration takes this to imply that they may lend money on mortgage outside their districts.
This has been held to be prohibited by the law but to a landholder. A tradesman may borrow money on the security of title deeds which he has got possession of.

This is not prohibited with the loan and not to a land holder.
