With reference to the correspondence relating with the letter from the Department on 24th dated the 20th June 1890 regarding the application of Mr. Jones to the Civil Surgeon at Bacoim, Hyderabad Resigned District, I am directed to state that Mr. Jones has submitted an application in which he requests that he may be transferred permanently to the Civil Department and assigned to the Government Medical Service. I am to inquire whether there are any objections in Bacoim to any objection Mr. Jones being attached to the Commission with the North Hyderabad Medical Service.

Yours faithfully,

J. P. Hewett.
