To

SIR,

With reference to para # of G. O. No. 923 P. dated 14th November 1894 I have the honor to send the following proposals for providing better accommodation for caste patients in the Presidency Hospitals.

of the Caste and Gosha Hospital the provision of accommodation in Women & Children Hospital

I am of opinion that it will be to entertain a Brahmin Cook on Rs 10, a man and 2 attendants at Rs 7 each for at the General Hospital, Ophthalmic Hospital and the Lying-in-Hospital in connection the Caste wards. For the Women & Children Hospital one attendant will however be sufficient.

As regards the Lepet Hospital and the Lunatic Asylum no such special accommodation appears necessary. Brahmins or other high Caste is rarely such admission to these institutions ent arrangements suffice.
