Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue)

Dated 18th September 1890

No. 5961 Miss

Mr H. W. Bliss

Mr W. P. Whitehead

READ the following letter from Government Pleader

Madras dated 21st August 1890 No 691 -

With reference to the Proceedings of the 5163 Board of Revenue Land Revenue No 5018 Miss
20-8-90 dated 11th August 1890, I have the honor to state that the civil suit petition No 411 of 1890 (application for extension of time for furnishing security) came on for hearing yesterday. The position of affairs seems to be as follows.

2. When the District Court of Chingleput awarded Rs 5000 compensation, the present petitioner (the zemindar) was the only one of all "the persons interested" who appealed to the High Court on the ground that 5000 was not enough. The High Court increased the amount to about Rs 50000. When the matter came before the District judge (Mr Maclean) on the question of apportionment of the 50000, he was so puzzled by the judgements of the two judges who differed from each other as to the principle on which the compensation should be calculated, that he

Rs 200 to the zemindar - who alone had brought the case to the High Court at his own expense.

The zemindar has appealed to the High Court against the District Judge's decision which only gave him Rs 200; whereas the Micraissidars who did not spend an anna in appealing to the High Court have had the balance apportioned among them. Mr Medderburn intimated to the Court that should the High Court confirm the District Judge's award to his client he had no intention of prosecuting the appeal to the Privy Council on the benefit of the Micraissidars.

Under these circumstances the Court allowed Mr Medderburn's application on behalf of the zemindar and extended the time for his giving security in his appeal to the Privy Council till the appeal regarding the apportionment is decided.

In the meantime the appeal by Government will proceed, so Government will not be prejudiced.

Of course if the order of the District Judge is confirmed and the zemindar takes no further steps in the appeal to the Privy Council he shall reap a considerable advantage.

I presume the Collector will not pay any compensation till the appeal to the Privy Council is disposed of.
