Order. 4th Nov. 90. No. 739

The papers will be returned to the Public Works Department with the intimation that the arrangements proposed for the Public Dept. are approved. It is thought that the covered way connecting the building occupied by the clerks with the main building might be closed in and erected so as to be more in keeping with the buildings than the present structure.

Forwarded to

The Public Department for for an early approval of the arrangements proposed for that Dept.

2. Increased accommodation for the P.W. Offices at Stonehouse Hill is absolutely needed, and to improve the appearance of the lower blocks, it is proposed to carry the extension to the entire length of the eastern side, thus giving additional accommodation to the Public Dept.
