Office Potacamund to the saluting Battery has requested me before commencing the work to inform you that though every effort will be made to give the time correctly at noon daily this Department cannot accept any responsibility in the matter. On hearing from you that you wish to have the wire put up on this understanding I will have it put in hand at once.

Order. The Government sanctions the erection of the wire, for firing the time gun at Potacamund, on the condition that though no responsibility will be accepted by the Telegraph Department as to the accuracy of the time, every effort will be made to give the time correctly at noon daily.
