Gratuity to Ayah
Amoo, W & C. Hospital

Under the Resol

The woman is not a regular employee on the staff of the hospital. She is a temporary hand & paid 6 M a month for 12 months. She has risked her life daily during 3 years of cholera & in nursing all contagious diseases since she came to the hospital with a severe infection which drew forth the warmest prayers of the medical officers in charge & medical officers know that such service merits - Dr. J. J. J.
36 M a month & a week of the appreciation of the Govt. for her services - If she goes away it will be hard to replace her.

ution in G.O. No. 543, d/9.8.90 (para: 89(b))
The Surgeon General has power to grant an honorarium up to Rs.
100. As the Ayah is only an "extra servant" perhaps the Acct. Dept would require a G.O. It is therefore proposed to sanction a gratuity
of two months' pay-viz: - Rs. (12) twelve

This seems rather a heavy sum to give off anything & given before that he has 6 months pay - viz Rs. 36 - still. I am not sure that the honorarium is not the Resolution dated 1/11/20 case such as this. It was apparently the Ayahs chief to attend upon the
S. S. S.
24/11/20

The Surgeon General recommends pay Rs 10-15. A G.O might come empowering him to grant what honorarium he deems proper within that limit

THE SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

FORT ST. GEORGE,

THE Chief Secretary to Government
Public Department

SIR,

With reference to the remarks of the Honorable Mr. J. H. Garstin made on his recent inspection of the Women and Children Hospital, I have the honor to forward for submission to Government the accompanying letter from the Medical Officer in charge recommending the grant of some small reward to native Ayah Annoo for her services during the late epidemic of cholera at the hospital. The devotion to duty displayed at some risk to herself by this woman is deserving of some special recognition and I accordingly recommend that she be granted a small gratuity of Rs 10 or 15 as a mark of appreciation of her good work by Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant

HOSPITAL FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN,
Madras, 27 October 1890.

From

SURGEON-MAJOR

A. L. Macchett.

Surgeon, 2nd District,

THE

Secretary to the Surgeon-General
With the Govt. of Madras. Fort St George.

SIR,

In forwarding the remarks of the Honorable Mr. Harston made on his last inspection here, I have the honor to recommend that Native Ayah Annos be granted some small reward for her untiring energy and attention to nearly 60 cases of cholera lately treated here. The Nurses Mrs. Belcher & Mrs. Evans showed great courage and were most attentive to the sick.

Ayah Annos is an extra servant and only draws Rs 6/- per mensem.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. L. Macchett

P.D. in Reg. No. 3203 of 1-11-90

Copy of the remarks, from the visitors book, made by the Honorable J. H. Sargent, Member of Council at his visit to the Hospital on the 21st Inst.

The situation of the Hospital is bad, being very low and liable to be flooded when the river is in high flood. The Matron informs me that her bungalow had a foot of water in it during the floods of 2 years ago. The Hospital is appreciated by the Public, there being 96 patients in it now, there is accommodation for 112 in all. The wards are small and not all as well ventilated as could be wished. The thatched cottages are comfortable but are constantly needing renewal or repair. A new hospital for Women & Children is much wanted.

Dr Hackett, the medical officer in charge has brought to my notice the devotion of a native Agha, employed as an extra hand & specially employed when there are contagious diseases in the wards, who attended all the cholera cases during the last 3 epidemics of the last 3 years, also the devotion & patient courage of the nurses of the Establishment. He advocates some in some reward being given to the defendant woman, at any rate, as a mark of the appreciation of Government of her good work. He should report on the matter officially.
