Remarks by the Protector of Emigrants.

The S.S. Mombasa arrived at Madras from Mauritius with 156 returned Emigrants (including one in excess of the number for Madras) on the afternoon of the 27th Ultimo. They were at once landed and inspected by the Medical Inspector of Emigrants and myself. Of these 49 paid their own passage, 14 were sent to Hospital being found unfit to undertake the journey to their homes, and the remaining 93 made up of paupers and invalids were despatched to their respective places at the Expense of the Colonial Government. From the Nominal Roll only a few appear to have brought savings, the particulars of which are detailed below:

and one man brought Rs 14,00

Of the Emigrants 8 were lepers. There were no Complaints worthy of notice and the Emigrants seemed on the whole quite satisfied with their treatment both on board and in the Colony.

But the majority looked sickly and miserable.

No man died during the voyage. There were about 150 Emigrants for Calcutta.
