[Despatch Abstract].

Re treatment of certain portion of Mr. G. J. Kemp's lease for as subsidiary lease.

No. 17.

District Court, Bellary.
Dated 26th November 1890.

From,

H. J. Knox Esquire,
District Judge, Bellary.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Madras.

Sir,

I believe that if my furlough ~~was~~ ordered to be cancelled from date of disembarkation at Bombay, the period up to my taking charge here could be counted as Subsidiary leave and therefore as service. It might hereafter be advantageous to me to count these days. If there be no objection to it, I therefore pray the order permitting me to return to duty may be modified in that sense.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

H. J. Knox

District Judge.
