20TH DECEMBER 1890, No. 899, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From C. J. LYALL, Esq., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 6th December 1890, No. 2407.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 726, dated the 30th October last, inquiring what grades and classes of public servants are covered by the expression "all uncovenanted officers in the subordinate executive and judicial services of the Government" which occurs in Home Department Resolution, No. 2R.87—103, dated 16th January 1890, prohibiting such officers from lending money on interest to landholders in the province in which they are employed. You further inquire whether the prohibition applies to all loans to landholders, whether the security to be given is land or houses.

2. In reply I am to say that the orders in the Resolution of 16th January 1890 apply, as surmised by the Madras Government, to all executive and judicial servants of Government to whom the term officer (e.g., Deputy Collectors and Tahsildars and Subordinate Judges and Munsifs) is usually applied, and that the prohibition covers all loans.

ORDER—dated 20th December 1890, No. 899, Public.

Communicated to departments of Government and to officers under the Public Department concerned, with reference to G.O., dated 30th January 1890, No. 60.

Home Department

Private Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 25th Oct. last enquiring what grades and classes of public servants are covered by the expression "all uncovenanted officers in the subordinate executive and judicial services of the Government" which occurs in Home Department Resolution No. 28 of 1889, dated 16th January 1890 prohibiting such officers from lending money on interest to land-holders in the provinces in which they are employed. You further enquire whether the prohibition applies to all loans to land-holders whether the security to be given is land or houses.

In reply I am to say that the orders in the Resolution of 16th January 1890 apply, as surmised by the Madras Government, to all Executive and Judicial servants of Government to whom the term "officer" is usually applied.

Copy of the Resolution and orders of the Government of India and Madras Government.

and that the prohibition covers all loans.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servant,

C. Hyatt

Secretary to the Govt of India.
