My dear Sir

In reply to,

Yr 27th inst. I with some work I see no objection to Mr. Fennell's being permitted to appear for examination before the Board of Examiners in a S. Indian Vernacular - (this is I presume his 2nd attempt the one with that to) - but I am inclined to think the more appropriate test is that of the Vernacular Branch of the higher than of accumulation.
