What is to be done as regard the enclosed?

Yours sincerely

My dear Rice Subbushree

Ask A.E. Suppose - I am ready enough to sell the firm & it is worth the money - But I Couldn't find time to write for permission, nor, to tell the truth, did I think it quite the thing to do so - But some answer must be given, so I may as well sell, if it is quite clear that there is no objection.

In haste

Yours truly

A. W. H. W.

My principal object in selling is that I never use the gun - I haven't fired one shot out of it since I came out in April '89 - and I don't want either to leave it here with the chance of its rusting or to have the bother of lugging it up to Calcutta

FOR ORDERS.

I am sorry to have given unnecessary trouble but had to clear out my house yesterday & tried of my pen among other articles to send it off to a gentleman in Simla who had telegraphed to me for it - I was going to write to Mr. Price this morning, hoping to see him, when this reached me. Dewan Rajput must be told that the pen has been sold
