Calcutta, the 8th Decr 1890.

Sir,

I am directed to forward copy of the accompanying telegram received from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, ~~and to~~ request that the government of India may be favoured with the opinion of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor on the proposal of the Colonial Office to depute or ~~assign~~ the Protector of Emigrants at Calcutta, to visit the ^{and} ~~island~~ ^{islands} during of Demerara and ~~Trinidad~~ his furlough.

2. I am at the same time the attention of the Governor to arrange like you at question of deputation of an official to report on of emigrants in certain was mentioned, but re separate consideration 1886 the proposal was forwarded by the Govt Madras, but postponed to financial consideration The suggestion, however had the approval of Government of India, and appears to be a favorable opportunity for giving an officer deputed, who acquainted with the of the emigrants. The

There is at present no emigration to Demerara or Trinidad

- did from Madras but there must be a number of Madras natives at both places.

But those natives who have remained in these colonies have in all probability done so on their own free will and not by the force of any agreement.
It seems doubtful whether it is desirable for this Govt. to the expense of sending a number of agents to places to which emigrants from this Government do not go and have not for a considerable time.

I don't think there is any necessity no coolies have gone to Trinidad 1873 or 1874. The papers don't show when emigration to Demerara began but I believe there has been none for years. Any Tamils who have remained beyond the terms of their engagements have doubtless acquired ability to communicate their views in languages other than their own who have done so with certainty for
