held an enquiry as soon as the matter was reported, and succeeded in recovering 202½ gold coins, 3 pieces of gold and the copper vessel. I have not considered it necessary to prosecute the finder under Sec. 20 of Act VII of 1878, as he is only 7 years old; and the men that were really to blame for taking away the treasure are unfortunately not liable to prosecution.

3. A notification under Sec. 5 was duly published, and an enquiry under Sec. 7 was held by me on the 16th inst. The owner of the land was represented by his agent. The finder did not appear.

4. I declared the treasure ownerless under Sec. 9, and the finder having forfeited his claim to a share in the treasure under Sec. 20, I awarded one-fourth of the treasure to the owner of the land, and three-fourths (the finder's share) to Government as follows:—

owner:— 43 small gold coins and one piece of gold (weighing in the aggregate about 4½ tolas).

SIR,

I have the honour to report
a case of treasure trove for the
