my letter No. 413 dated 24th
September 1891.

2. As regards the treatment and accommodation of the Emigrants at Marseilles, I beg to state that the Returned Emigrants did not make any Complaint. I shall, however, make the necessary enquiries on the point on future occasion of similar repatriation from that Colony. The detention of the Emigrants at Marseilles did not result in any expense to them, for they got one franc per head every day for subsistence which, I think, is sufficient.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
