GOVERNMENT C-ADAMING

SIR,

I beg you will be so kind as to inform me whether I am eligible to go up for an examination in Russian, which is held, I understand, annually in Secunderabad, whether I am subsequently eligible to be allowed to spend furlough in Russia for the purpose of passing in the examination held in London, and whether, if I do pass that examination, the furlough I have spent in Russia will be counted as service in India.

I should further beg to be informed of the date of the examination at Secunderabad, and of whom I should obtain permission to appear.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. D. Rees
