MANUAL

FOR FIRST ASSISTANT.

I visited G.P. into headquarters to see what could be done about this. The case remained exactly as when I drafted 102 of 1344. Feb. 1890, except that at the final stage the books are now more valued than ever.

It is useless to send back some of the books & to send back the whole. Delays my reference library specially selected.

As you are in the spot & can better judge how to manage the affair I shall be much

Obliged if you ~~can~~ could make order to be passed as will show by the difficulty. I should think Superintendent might be told that it is not yet convenient to return the books, but they will be returned as soon as done with.

I do not know what is meant by the distinction shown in the 2 lists. All were taken out in the name of the Chief Secretary.

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF ^{Assistant} SECRETARY.

Sir,

None of the books are in the library. Nor is there ^{in the library} any list of books borrowed for Dr. Macleane.

Mr. Subba Rao, in reply to my inquiry about this, writes to say that he has not kept any such list, as the memos for books were not sent through the library.

Please see the list of books with the rent 3764 and let me know whether any of the books are in the library or whether they were all obtained

I am not satisfied with this.
There must be a large number of books which Dr. Brackman cannot possibly any longer require. Call upon him to say what he can send back now and where the books may look for the remainder.

Order.

It would be most inconvenient to return the books just at present as they are required constantly for reference. They will be returned as soon as the necessity for their use is past.

Meanwhile, any information regarding them that is required in view to their being catalogued will be supplied to the Supt. on application to Dr. Maclean, Ovelore.
