M.S.

In addition it has been usual in certain districts to grant certain special holidays (vide 3rd list) which the Ex. appears to want and to ascertain is whether the G.O.
No. 100 affects these special holidays. It only touches the list of 1862. Hence the draft.

28 Jan.

The object of a list of the sort is that (as stated in the G.O. of 1862) no holiday should be allowed except those stated in it. No list, whether in Board's order or P.O. L.O., other than the list in the recent order should be recognized. The order should be that the recent list excludes & cancels all others.

The Examiner should be informed that G.O. 8th Nov. 1890 No 754 merely revised the list of holidays sanctioned in G.O. 28th March 1862 No. 383, and that the question of the grant of holidays in the medical beyond those mentioned in the revised list remains as it was before the issue of the G.O. of Nov.

Surely the further thing to say is that the D.P.W. Code should be brought into conformity with the last G.O.

Order

On the 12th Dec 1890 the Education Department has been informed that the list of gazetted holidays for the year 1891 has been forwarded to the Public Department for their consideration.

Tables in the holidays above of the Madras P. S. Code as allowable to particular law sects of Hindus in different districts are omitted from the list.

P.W. Accounts No 7082 of 1st Decr

Please say whether the revised list of gazetted holidays sanctioned in G.O. No 754 Public dated 8th November 1890, and notified on page 864 Part I of the Port and George Gazette of 11th November 1890 includes holidays allowable to Hindus in the Mofussil.

2. The notification published in the gazette of 28th March 1862 seems to have applied both to the Presidency and to the
