form of address to be used by officials in addressing pri-vate individuals.

of the benign British Government. I do not come forward to bring this to your notice on my special account. But it is in the interest of all Editors who are worthy of some respect, I took this liberty of intrusion to prove of what I have stated here, I beg leave to enclose herewith, a cover addressed by the collector of Panjora. Hoping that you will be graciously pleased to excuse for this indulgence

Government of Madras.

Honored Sir,

May I like to be informed whether Editors of newspapers have any Capacity or position to be addressed by the authorities, as collectors &c, with a 'Mr. R. R.' or a 'Mr.' or with 'Kudal'. I don't see why these people, in their individual Capacity or position, ~~the~~ and who are not in any way inferior to the Head Constables of the Police Department, can not enjoy this insignificant recognition in the hands of
