CHIEF SECRETARY
20 FEB 1901

To

Mr. J. Price
Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

I, nephew of (late P. Ramaswami Tahashildar) appeared for the late Matriculation examination of 1890 and have passed it in the second class. I am anxious to continue my collegial course, while my parents are not rich enough to pay for my education.

Before the death of P. Ramaswami, he entrusted his two sons and a small sum of money to my father, and with that sum he and his brother started a firm at Madras. It was working well for a time, but I am sorry to say that we had sustained a great loss in that.

In the whole family,
I am the only one that studies.

look for me. It is needless on my part to say that Ramaswami did great service to the Government by his indefatigable energy, in spite of his ignorance to English, since your honor knows the fact.

I will not offend your honor, if I say, that it is quite uncharitable on the part of the Government, if they do not help the family of a man who did innumerable benefits to the Government, especially when they are in utter darkness.

It was the light that your ^{honor} lit up long ago, that has been burning until very recently.
It was put out now and so we are in entire darkness. If your honor again lights up the candle of your mercy, we will live happily under its light.

I, therefore most humbly beg your honor to be kind enough as to give me a footing in your honor's office or to recommend to any ever pray God for your long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient Servant P. R. Krishnaswamy

As a credential, that I am the nephew of Ramswami, I enclose some of his testimonials given by various Collectors.
