IN reply to Mr. Under-Secretary Muir-Mackenzie's letter No. 115—20-1 Arch., dated the 28th April last, enquiring what action this Government has taken or proposes to take in respect of the reproduction of the illustrations of the Ajanta Cave paintings, I am directed to state, for the information of the Government of India, that on receipt of the Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State, No. 24, dated 21st November 1889, this Government, with the permission of the Government of India, in the Foreign

From the replies received it appears that 47 copies of the work (including one copy subscribed for by His Excellency the Governor) will be taken in this Presidency and 18 by His Highness the Nizam's Government and the Native States in Rajputana and Central India. The total number of copies subscribed for is thus 65, or a number materially less than one-half of 150—the number which Her Majesty's Secretary of State desired should be subscribed for by the general public in India—and I am, therefore, to request that you will be so good as to move the Government of India to invite the other Local Governments, and through them the Political Officers subordinate to them, to induce other Chiefs and Natives of wealth and position to subscribe for copies of the work. The general public in India may, His Excellency in Council is of opinion, be also invited to subscribe for copies of the publication.

CALCUTTA, the 26th January 1891.

SIR,

I AM directed to invite attention to Home Department endorsement No. 8—176-184 of 10th May 1886, with which was forwarded copy of a report by Mr. Griffiths on the work of copying the paintings in the Ajanta Caves, 1884-85.

The best mode of carrying out the recommendations made by Mr. Griffiths in paragraph 28 of his report has been under the consideration of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, who has consented now to the reproduction of the paintings in England, in chromo-lithography, accompanied with suitable letter-press. His Lordship, however, has stipulated that 150 copies of the work shall be subscribed for in India independently of copies to be taken by the India Office on behalf of the Imperial and Local Governments. From the accompanying extract

* No. 4714, dated the 1st December 1890, paragraph 1. from a letter* from the Government of Bombay it will be seen that that Government has succeeded in obtaining subscriptions for a considerable number of copies of the work. The pictures, it has always been understood, are admirably reproduced, and the collection, if published in the manner proposed, will doubtless constitute a volume of great interest, historical as well as artistic. I am, therefore, to invite the cordial co-operation of in making up the necessary number of subscriptions.
