Sir,

15th December last I

On the 15th December last I declared certain Treasure Trove consisting mainly of old Roman Denarii to be ownerless and directed that three fourths of the same should be made over to the finders and the balance to the Government. I also directed that after reference had been made to the Superintendent of the Central Museum, the decision would be made as to whether the Treasure itself or its value should be made over to the finders.
