In G. O. 575 of 11th March 1876, on being reported ~~and~~ ^{from} that W. L. M. Wyckh had been declared to be an indifferent rider after going through the prescribed equitation course, he was ordered to continue to attend at the Riding School till certified to be competent in this respect and he remained a month and a half longer in Madras for that purpose (vide G. O. 905 of 6th May 1876)

Attention is solicited to Rule 10 of the rules for the Open Competition in June 1888 which will be found in G.O. 1467 B. of 25.10.87). Mr. Vengopal Chetty based under these rules and it is not understood how, under the circumstances now reported, he satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners as to his competence to perform a journey on horseback.

C No. 233.

From The President, Board of Examiners

Dated 24 2. 1891.

FOR ORDERS.

Under G.O. No. 202 Public of 8th February 1891, Junior Cadets have to remain in Madras until ordered to join their districts by the President of the Board of Examiners, this order being issued on receipt by the President of information from the Command of the Body Guard that the Civilian concerned has passed the equitation course at the Riding School. The course is expected to be ordinarily completed within two months from date of arrival.

Mr. Vengopal Chetti arrived on the 21st November 1890 and has thus been already 3 months in the country. From the remarks made in the Commandant's letter that this officer has nearly completed his course as regards time, it would appear that he did attend at the Riding School immediately on arrival in the country.
