His Excellency the Governor in Council.
Fort St. George.

The humble petition of P.
Parthasaratty residing in Premises no.
176 Mint street. Madras most respectfully sheweth:-

That he humbly craves - your Excellency will pardon him for taking the liberty of inviting your attention to the following few lines written with an earnest desire affecting your benigne and favourable Consideration, also from a deep respect of your kind and benevolent feeling towards the helpless.

2. That his straitened cir-cumstances and despair arising from such have impelled him to take this fearless step in pushing himself before your notice. He is at present a matriculated Candidate of the Madras University. Though he passed this Examination by great exertion in obtaining pecuniary help y^t he had strong inclination to prosecute his Studies further. But he feels sorry to express that his unhappy Circumstances did not permit him to do the same. Conse-quently he had to give up his studies, to procure an Appointment which would be sufficient for his daily food.

3.

He has been endeavouring to effect his object in different ways, but regrets his failure in every place he has tried. When many Candidates entitled to the Government Appointments are available, recommendation and influence is indispensable to anyone of them in desirous of an appointment.
This humble petitioner being in devoid of such recommendation and influence influence, lastly, in his despair, he has taken this bold step in appealing to your Excellency with full confidence in your tender feeling for suffering humanity and expects that your Excellency would for this poor man's sake and his forlorn Circumstance, Condescend to get him a footing in any office which may please your Excellency to Confer on him.

4 He further humbly begs to assure your Excellency that he will pledge himself to be a diligent and energetic subordinate to any one under whom he may be placed and will endeavour to turn the little education he has received to good account.

5 In Conclusion, your humble servant prays for your good welfare and happy government of this Presidency and out af of great debt of gratitude which he will owe to your Excellency he will ever Consider this generous action a great boon Conferred on him.

Petitioner begs to remain your Excellency's most obedient & humble Servant
P. Parthasarathy
