This letter appears to leave Govt. in option.

It is presumed that men who have done well in mathematics and more likely to do well in the Asst. Secy.
than those who have not.
A list of the names of the men
from whom selection might be made submitted in placed in the file.
It is submitted that down to Mr.

I don't think } Henry, the men are too senior to be sent as sub-collectors to the Asst. Secy. Further that the three lower down who have made good marks in the Asst. Secy. exam & British are required for service
here and cannot be spared.
Mr. Morris it will be observed go to high marks in mathematics. He might be thought the best of the would accept the appointment. He would probably do for it. He would be promoted for here as he is now
by Mr. J. and has been a sub-collector. He is however I only a little over 4 years standing

I am now to ask that, under the orders of the Governor in Council, the offer of this appointment may be made, as early as is convenient, to some Civilian of a standing suitable to the appointment, whom His Excellency in Council considers qualified for it, and that, should no officer of the proper standing, and with the requisite qualifications, be willing to accept it, a properly qualified officer may be selected by the Madras Government and his name communicated to the Government of India.

FROM

C. J. LYALL, Esq., C.I.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India.

TO

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

Home Department.
Establishments.

Calcutta, the 13th February 1891.

SIR,

As a result of the casualties which have recently occurred among the officers serving under the Finance Department there are at present two appointments in the enrolled list of that Department, to fill which Indian Civilian are recruited, but which are at present vacant owing to the fact that Local Governments are short-handed and find it impossible, without inconvenience to themselves, to spare the services of junior Civilians. It is absolutely essential to the efficiency of the Department that the two vacant appointments in the Finance Department should be filled without delay, and the Governor General in Council has therefore had a careful examination made of the state of the services in the different provinces in order to ascertain what Local Governments can, with the least detriment to the Administration, spare a junior Civilian for service in the Finance Department. The result of this examination shows that the Madras Government, though they have not, the Government of India regret, at their command the full complement of officers to which they are entitled, can spare the services of an officer with less inconvenience than the other Local Governments, and I am therefore to address you regarding the provision of an officer.

2. It is with great reluctance, and only because other Local Governments are in a still worse case as regards the number of officers available for service under them, that the Governor General in Council finds himself constrained to call upon the Madras Government to provide an officer.

Of the officers under the Madras Government, Mr. H. D. Taylor is at present engaged in managing the Jeypur zamindari, and it is proposed to appoint Mr. L. C. Miller to be Manager of the Pittapur Estate. While the Governor General in Council readily admits that the employment of Government officers in managing large private estates may be desirable in exceptional cases, such employment cannot be permitted unless the requirements of the Government admit of it, and the Government of India have a prior claim to officers of the Indian Civil Service which must be satisfied before any officers can be deputed to outside work. The Governor General in Council therefore trusts that the Madras Government will find it possible to remedy any inconvenience that may be caused by the demand of the Government of India for an officer by either recalling Mr. Taylor to District duty or by making some other arrangement for the management of your Estate, instead of appointing Mr. Miller.

3. The officer to be selected in the Presidency will draw officiating allowance on a pay of Rs 1,000 a month and probably for six or nine
