*I don't see any objection to the sale. This probably is great convenience to the Maharajah to buy a pair of broken horses to put as it is to D.
White to sell them - I don't see why we should let the Maharajah buy any in D. White's interests.
The transaction is perfectly bona fide & no extravagant price is being asked for the animals

March 9th 1891.

My dear Mr Hannington.

I will be much obliged for your permission to sell a pair of horses to the Maharaja's Stables My wife is going home and I myself hope also to go for a few months.
The horses are grey or white walers and cost me Rs 1300 just a year ago.
The price is Rs 1100.

Believe me to be
