Archæology.

CALCUTTA, the 10th March 1891.

SIR,

IN continuation of Govt. No 234. C., dated the 3rd March 1890, I am directed to state that the Government of India have decided that the Indian Museum at Calcutta, which is a national institution, is the best place for the permanent storage of the photographic negatives of archaeological objects and buildings taken by the Archaeological Survey Department. I am to request that His Ex. the Govt. in Council may be asked to permit the transfer of all such negatives to the Trustees, Indian Museum, Calcutta; special care should be taken by secure packing to guard against breakage.

2. The work of printing, as already intimated to you, will be undertaken by the Survey of India Department which will supply prints on requirement. The process adopted will be that of silver printing, and the average price is expected to rule at 8 annas per copy. Heliogravures will be supplied on special requisition. Requisitions for prints should be forwarded without delay to Colonel Waterhouse, Assistant Surveyor General in charge Photographic Department of the Survey Office, Calcutta.

CALCUTTA, the 10th March 1891.

SIR,

, dated the 3rd March 1890, I am directed to state that the Government of India have decided that the Indian Museum at Calcutta, which is a national institution, is the best place for the permanent storage of the photographic negatives of archæological objects and buildings taken by the Archæological Survey Department. I am to request that the transfer of all such negatives to the Trustees, Indian Museum, Calcutta; special care should be taken by secure packing to guard against breakage.

2. The work of printing, as already intimated to you, will be undertaken by the Survey of India Department which will supply prints on requirement. The process adopted will be that of silver printing, and the average price is expected to rule at 8 annas per copy. Heliogravures will be supplied on special requisition. Requisitions for prints should be forwarded without delay to Colonel Waterhouse, Assistant Surveyor General in charge Photographic Department of the Survey Office, Calcutta.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

E. C. BUCK,

Secretary to the Government of India.
