

N. 154 Tellicherry, 1st April 1897

From A. Thompson Esqrs, By District Judge of North Malabar.

The Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department,
Cotacamund.

Sir,

In G. O. N. 204 dated 17th March 1897, Public, Government granted me an extension of joining time until such date as Mr. Siddian should hand over charge of the office of District Judge.

On the evening of March 13th, at Cotacamund I received Mr. Siddian's letter informing me that he would hand over charge to me probably on the 14th and next day started for Tellicherry, where I arrived at 12.15 P.M. of the 14th and then found that Mr. Siddian had already over charge to the Sheristadar, he did not however leave Tellicherry until the 20th.

3. The Accountant-General in his letter of 23^d March 1891, No 860, informs me that as Mr. Siddian made over charge in the forenoon of March 16th and as I assumed charge in the afternoon of the 17th, I am not entitled to draw any pay for these two days.

4. Under these circumstances, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to extend my joining time until the afternoon of March 17th.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

S Thompson
Ag. District Judge.
